GUEST BOOK

I am very sorry for your loss. I wish to extend my condolences by sharing a positive bible message. It is very hard to lose a loved one, we fill up in sadness and never ask ourselves: Can the dead really live again? It is relieving to know that the Bible in Acts 24:15 says: "There is going to be a resurrection." How can we be sure of this? In Hebrew 6:18 it says that it is impossible for God to lie. If he says it, it will happen, and in a near future. For more information visit JW.ORG

My deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved family member. To lose a loved one in death is so very painful. The Bible has comforting words to help you cope. Psalm 147:3 says; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the promise at Hosea 13:14; From the power of the grave I will redeem them; From death I will recover them. You can have confidence in this because Jehovah's promises always come true (Isaiah 55:11).

I would like to offer my condolences to the family of Ms. Sutton and may God be a refuge and strength in your time of sorrow.(Psalms 46:1)

- P. Watts

I am very sorry for your loss. However, Almighty God has provided a guarantee of a resurrection to all people in His memory by resurrecting Jesus from the dead. (Psalm 83:18; Acts 17:31) We will be able to see our loved ones again on a restored earth. (Psalm 37:11, 29) I hope this brings you peace.

I would like to offer my condolences to the family of Ms. Sutton and may God be a refuge and strength in your time of sorrow.(Psalms 46:1)

- P. Watts

I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. There is a very comforting scripture found at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can look forward to a time when death will be done away with forever. I hope that this scripture can bring some comfort during this time.
