Obituary for Jerry Lorenzo Ross

Mr. Jerry Lorenzo Ross was born on September 14, 1948 to the late Mr. Ruben Ross and Mrs. Willie Mae Logan Ross of Atlanta, Georgia. He was the second of five brothers.

Two of his brothers preceded him in death.

Mr. Ross graduated from Luthern Judson Price in 1964 in Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Ross favorite lifetime activities were attending church every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at the Holy Faith of Comforter Church. Jerry also enjoyed going walking in the cool of the day. He leaves to cherish his memory; two brothers, Mr. William (Tina) Ross and Mr. Rickie Ross; two nieces, Haleemia (Willie) Ruffin and Deanne King; Jerry will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

GUEST BOOK

May "peace from God" ease the pain of the loss of your loved one. 2 Corinthians 1:2

- A. Ellison

You have my sincere condolences. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:7) May the hope of a resurrection right here on earth bring you comfort. (Acts 24:15; Psalm 37:11, 29)

- P. Henderson

My condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. The pain of grief we feel when our loved ones die can sometimes be unbearable. The comforting words from our heavenly father Jehovah found at Isaiah 25:8; He (God) will swallow up death forever. And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces, and Psalm 34:18; Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit, will help you to cope with the grief and sadness now and in the days ahead.

- R. Sweatman

I'm so sorry for your loss. Until we see our loved ones again, may the promise of a better future free of pain and sorrow give you hope and bring you peace. Heartfelt prayers are with you. John 11:21-26; Revelation 21:3,4.

- Sharon Elaine

To the Road family, you are in my thoughts and prayers. May the promise of the resurrection hope bring you much comfort at this time (John 5:28,29). Sincerely, Amy Edwards
