Sweet & gentle is my feelings for my Supervisor. She hired me last year and quickly became a Friend. She comforted me through my tears the latter part of last year when we found out my spouse had cancer. She cried and soothed me thru our conversations when I thought my world was shattering piece by piece by piece, not ONCE mentioning her own battle. My spouse never met her but when I told him of this great loss, he walked away and found 'his closet' to cry and pray for her spirit. We always hugged when I had to work in the office and I always made it a point to stop and chat when there with her. So honored to have her in my life only if for a short time. One final thought: she had me call her and let her hear Earth, Wind & Fire when they performed in Raleigh last year. I also brought her back their autographs and she just giggled, hugged me & kept saying Thank You Cynthia. Now I say from my hurting heart, Thank YOU Anita.

Dear family of my friend Anita, my prayers are with you daily. Anita was so much more than a friend, she always so compassionate, and kind, she didn't always put the job first, she would follow rules, but allow enough space for you to do for your family in a time you needed it. Family first was her rule:) Her and I had many talks, she helped me through alot of situations, just letting me talk. All of us will miss her greatly, and I pray God's arms will surround and comfort you, she is fine now, but I know her thoughts would be that you are comforted:) love and prayers, Peach and family

I'd like to express deep sympathy for loss of your loved one. I hope and pray this message bring comfort and soothe the pain that you are experiencing at this time. What has help me to cope and deal with lost a love one is found God's Word the Bible in Psalms 113:5-8 'Who is like Jehovah our God, The one who dwells on high? 6 He stoops down to look on heaven and earth, 7 Raising the lowly from the dust. He lifts up the poor from the ash heap 8 In order to make him sit with nobles, With nobles of his people.' You can find similar comforting verses in the website jw.org.

I am truly sorry for the loss and pain that you are feeling. We've all had to endure the sorrow of losing a loved one in death. What helped me the most was prayer and faith in God's promises like found here at 1 Corinthians 15: 26 and it tells us: 'And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.' The Bible tells us at Hebrews 2: 14 'so that through his (Jesus') death, he (Jesus) might bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death, that is, the Devil.' So we are promised by our heavenly Father, Jehovah, and his beloved son Jesus that they will not only do away with death, but they will do away with the one that causes death, the Devil. Just remember the Devil can't do anything that Jehovah our heavenly Father can't undo. For more comforting scriptures please visit: <http://bit.ly/1K38EFt>. Again, the family is in my prayers and I offer my heartfelt condolences. Feel free to contact me if you wish at my email address; myranj@centurytel.net
