For the brief time that I knew him, I perceived him as kind, strong, gentle and caring person who loved his family and did his best to take care of them, A good and honorable man; gone too soon. I was blessed to have known him. May the Lord ease the pain in your hearts and give peace to your minds that surpasses understanding.

I know the McDougald family have saddened hearts because of losing Ronnie in death. So I want to share this beautiful scripture where our heavenly father, Jehovah, (Psalm 83:18) promises us that he is going to do away with man's greatest enemy, death. Rev. 21: 4; 'And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.' When our loved ones fall asleep in death, the pain and grief seems unbearable. Our loving God Jehovah understands how we feel and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. . ' Jehovah invites you to throw all your burdens on him and he will sustain you in your time of grief. For more comforting scriptures please visit: <http://bit.ly/1K38EFt> It has provided me with many more scriptures that have given me comfort, strengthened my faith and helped me find the answer to Why? I know it will do the same for you. God's kingdom that Jesus taught us to pray for at Matt. 6: 9, 10 will bring about these wonderful promises including the resurrection. (John 5: 28, John 6:40, John 11:25) Isaiah 26:19 'Your dead will live.....And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life.' Isaiah 25:8 'He will swallow up death forever. For Jehovah himself has spoken it.' It is my prayer these scriptures will give you comfort in your grief. Again, I offer my sincere condolences to the family.
