GUEST BOOK

The loss of a cherished loved one is the most devastating experiences a family can face. At times, the loss may seem unbearable. Please know that there are family and friends who care and more importantly Psalm 34:18 tells us that 'God is near to those that are broken at heart. He is the God of all comfort. God will comfort you during this difficult time of grief. Our prayers are also with you and your family.

- Williams

May the memories that mean the most to you remain forever in your hearts. With deepest regrets, Mary Ann Washington Deku

- Mary Deku

We deeply feel for what you and the family are going through. At times, there isn't much that can soothe the pain this grief brings, but you may find some comfort in the words of Psalms 9:9 which reads: 'Jehovah will become a secure refuge for the oppressed, A secure refuge in times of distress.' Yes, our Loving God can help if we allow him to (1John 5:14). He also has made the SURE promise of a resurrection right here on earth, when it is restored to a Paradise (Acts 24:15; Psalms 37:9-11,29). No, not just a dream, but for a certainty he will do it, for Isaiah 55:11 shows us that everything he says, he accomplishes without fail.

I am saddened to learn o the loss of Ms. Margaret. My grandmother Annie rose whitener and her was very close and Ms. Margaret was an integral part of my childhood. Tony, Tyrone and all of her family is in my prayers.

- Toney E. Means

Tony, I am sorry for the loss of your mother, Ms. Margaret.

- Carl Brown

Cousins Tony and Tyrone, and family, I'm sorry that I was unable to attend Margaret's (we called her Marjean) funeral. As a child, I remember the times when my mother (Mrs. Bobo), me and my youngest sister and brother would take our Sunday stroll to Bee St., to visit cousins Nellie Wheeler and your mother. Marjean will surely be missed. My heartfelt prayers and thoughts are with you and your family.
