GUEST BOOK

To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. During this sad time, please take comfort in the Bible's positive message. In it, our Heavenly Father assures of his loving support in times of grief, and he promises to reunite us with our dear loved ones (Psalm 34:18 and Revelation 21:3,4). In the days ahead, may these thoughts help to provide a measure of comfort. For more comforting thoughts, please visit jw.org. Take care.
