GUEST BOOK

We're so sorry you are mourning the loss of your dear loved one. Not much can soothe the pain this sorrow brings, but we hope the words of Psalms 34:18 can help some. It reads: "Psalms 34:18 Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." We can rely on our loving God to provide comfort in these troublesome times. He also has made the Surprise of a resurrection RIGHT HERE ON EARTH when it is restored into a beautiful paradise! (Acts 24:15; Psalms 37:9-11, 29). This is Sure to come because everything God says, he does without fail (Isaiah 55:11). Find out more about this resurrection online at JW.ORG

We're sorry to hear about your recent loss. May you find strength from the words of Philippians 4:13 which says: 'For all things I have the strength through the one who gives me power.' What a loving God who cares about each one of us. He didn't intend for us to grow old and die. He thus has made the SURE promise of a resurrection right here on earth when it is restored to a beautiful paradise (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Acts 24:15; Isaiah 55:11). Can you see yourself welcoming back to life your loved ones? What a joy it will bring all of us. You can go online to JW.ORG and find out more about this resurrection.

I am so sorry to hear about my childhood friend Edwards Cook a.k.a Troubleman passing. I hope that the love of God, family and friends will comfort and strengthen all who new him in the days ahead. Made peace be forever upon Edward Cook in the here after. Amen

- Richard Lofton

To all of 'Troublemans' family, friends, colleagues, class and teammates, and so many others that were truly blessed to have ever had the pleasure of knowing him, please accept my deepest condolences. I pray that God may comfort and touch with each of your hearts and souls during this time of shock and grief. Troubleman's passing is a definite loss to all that knew him. But our loss here on earth is, undoubtedly, a joyous addition to Heaven. RIP Bro! MCHS c/o 91'

I never met this young man, but felt so close to him. My niece Stephanie Williams was his friend and she talked about him. I had sent him a pineapple cake. My prayers are with the family and my niece Stephanie, not just today but the coming days. God got this, and he will be there and that right early. Praying

The Culmer Family offers its sincere condolences and its deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Mr. Edward Cook, and the men of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. and alumni of North Carolina Central University. Mr. Cook was humble, compassionate, giving, caring, and went above and beyond the call of duty to help his fellow man. He always had a contagious smile and a funny sense of humor. His passion for cooking and serving others was mirrored in every event he catered for. Our last encounter was at the Durham Alumni Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. Black and White Ball (June 8). Ed appeared to be on cloud 9 spending time with his brothers and seeing familiar faces. We will miss you Ed. Heaven has gained an angel. #Lifeisprecious #Enjoylife2dafullest #grateful #thankful #honored

No more gut wrenching laughs, secrets, prayers, tears, cigars, late night chats, swapping recipes, venting sessions, pains, sorrows or worrying about tomorrow. Deacon Cook, I pray GOD draws your family closer to Him as they celebrate your life. Please Lord give the Cook Family a peace far beyond all they understand and Love all the hurt away. Kiss your Grandmother I know sheâs happy to see you! With Deepest Sympathy #3

E!!!! No more gut wrenching laughs, secrets, being misunderstood, prayers, tears, cigars, late night chats, swapping recipes, parlaying, venting sessions, pains, sorrows or worrying about tomorrow. Deacon Cook, Iâm glad youâd developed an intimate relationship with Jesus but saddened that your earthly testimony has ended. I ask that God comforts your loved ones. I pray GOD draws your family closer to Him as they celebrate your life. Please Lord give the Cook Family a peace far beyond all they understand and Love all the hurt away. E, kiss your Grandmother for I know sheâs happy to see you! With Deepest Sympathy #3

No words can express our sorrow. 'Cookie' lived his life with hope, help and heart and will be missed greatly. May God continue to sustain his family and all those who knew and loved him.

- Elaine & Tyler Evans

Iâm still having a hard time processing this but thanks Big brother for all the laughs and memories. I will miss you coming to Ma and Daddys house cutting up with Brent and the family. Everyone loved your personality and cooking. We will miss you terribly. Smile down from heaven.

This loss that Class of 1991 is experiencing has been one to remember. Some classmates just knew the name 'Troubleman' others knew both Edward and 'Troubleman' but all the same we have lost one of our very own and it hurts. My prayer is that God gives us strength to endure and go through, continue to keep his hands on us and bring comfort to us all. Class of 1991 send love and prayers to your Clio family , your Durham family, your Fraternity family and to all of those who loved you as family.

- Freida Ocean

We will continue to keep your family in our hearts and prayers. We pray that God ease this pain and continue to be with you in the days to come.

On behalf of Community of Grace Church we send our love and support to your family during this time. You have several family members and classmates that belong to our church family. Whenever someone in our church family suffers a loss, we all suffer a loss. We stand a phone call a way should you need a comforting word or just our silent presence we are here. May God continue to keep your family wrapped in his arms. Eddie L. Davis, Pastor

Sending heartfelt condolences to the family. We pray that you find comfort in the fond memories you have of Ed. We had the pleasure of meeting Ed when he mentored our 16 year son while leading the first group of Kappa Alpha Psi's to cross at the NCCU campus. Thank you for taking care of our precious cargo. Rest easy in heaven Cook! Powell family.

- Liz

To the family of Ed Cook, please know he has left a phenomenal mark on the city of Durham, North Carolina Central (NCCU), and most recently First Calvary Baptist Church. I had the pleasure of knowing Ed for over 20 years. We attended NCCU together, and served together at First Calvary. He has done a job well, and now he can take his eternal rest.

R.I.P Ed Cook. Im still in disbelief. Ed was one of the good guys. Always well dressed, a big smile and willing to help anyone. My condolences to his family difficult time

- Gaillette Christopher

Sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest condolences. When I think of losing a loved one as you have, it brings to mind the promise that the Bible holds out at Revelation 21:3,4 where it says that the Grand Creator Jehovah God will wipe away sickness and death forever and reunite us with our loved ones on a clean earth in the near future.(John 5:28,29; Psalms 83:18) jw.org website for more encouragement.

Praying for the family and friends of Ed. I had the pleasure of meeting Ed during our son, Chris Jones' college graduation celebration, where Ed catered the event. From the first time meeting him until the last time seeing him at Chris' wedding, he seemed like part of the family. He had a genuine love and concern for those he met. I feel blessed to have met such a gentle giant. May the God of all comfort grant you all peace during this time and in the days ahead.

- Patricia Smith

Sincere condolences to the Cook family. Ed was a very nice person.

- Gloria Wiggins-Hicks

Sending prayers and condolences to the family. May God keep you in your time of need. I will miss you Ed!
