GUEST BOOK

To: The Giles Family It is not an easy experience for those who lose a love one in death. The sting of death leave those behind to grieve terribly for the one who is no longer with them. Death was not in God's purpose for mankind. Living forever was his plan for us and still is by means of his Son, Jesus. You see, when sin entered into the world as a result of disobedience to God's command, the opportunity of living forever for Adam and Eve ceased for them and all of their future offspring. Rather than seeing all of their offspring suffer and die for what they did, Jehovah God made a way out for them by sending his son as a ransom sacrifice. By means of Jesus sacrifice and being raised from the dead, God gave us a glimpse of what he will do for all mankind in the near future. Acts 17: 31, says, Because he has set a day on which he purposes to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has provided a guarantee to all men by resurrecting him from the dead. God has give us a guarantee of a resurrection and it's a reality that will certainly happen. Also, 2 Corinthians 1: 3 & 4 says, that, God is the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials. I pray that your family will find comfort from God in your times of grief. Sincerely, H. Christian

Let the memories of your father and brother provide you with comfort and serve as guidance. He will truly be missed.

- The Sumpter Family

Lisa, may beautiful memories give you strength at this time, I will never forget the many phone call from Clearence checking on his brother Lee and days and nights he spend with him reminiscing and bringing him up to date on things. Lisa I realize words however kind, can't mend your heartache, but those care and share your loss wish you comfort and peace of mind. May you find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends. Expressing heartfelt sympathy and offering a prayer that God above will comfort you and ease the loss you bear.
