GUEST BOOK

To the Daniels,Rohadfox, and gurley families our warmest and sincere condolences toyou all in this difficult time,May God grant you peace.Mrs.Ethel Holloway and family.

My deepest condolences to the Daniels and Rohadfox family.May fond memories of Barbara bring you comfort. I will keep you in my prayers. M. Dempson

I would like to express my condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing them again in the promised resurrection to come according to scriptures such as [John 5:28-29] and [Acts 24:15]. We find further hope in scriptures like [Isaiah 25:8] and [Revelations 21:3-5] which says in part that Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, because God will swallow up death forever. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort. With Deep Sympathy.

So sorry for your loss It is so hard to focus on daily activities after such a lose but hold on to all your precious memories of your loved one. and remember our Creator, Jehovah God has them in His memory as well. (Psalms 83:18) He makes this promise: 'And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.' (Revelation 21:4) So please remember you are loved and God's word promises you will see your loved one again. (John 5:28,29) Please accept my heartfelt condolences. jw.org Website for more encouragement.

We're so sorry to hear you are mourning the recent loss of your loved one. May you find strength and comfort from the words of Psalms 46:1 which reads: 'God is our refuge and strength, A help that is readily found in times of distress.' Our loving God is there for us if we ask for his help (1 John 5:14). He didn't intend for us to grow old and die. He thus has made the SURE promise of a resurrection RIGHT HERE ON EARTH when it is restored to a beautiful paradise (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Acts 24:15; Isaiah 55:11). Can you see yourself welcoming back to life your loved ones? What a joy it will bring all of us. You can go online to JW.ORG and find out more about this resurrection.

Joy, I was saddened to hear of the passing of your mother. I knew her briefly many years ago at Greater St. Paul Baptist Church. There are no words at this time that will fill that void, however, you will come to the realization that God extended her stay 13 years longer than promised. Thank God for the time he gave her and know that He makes no mistakes. Look to Him in this dark and trying time. You shall continually be in my prayers.

- Vera J. Walthour (Gerri's Aunt)

To each of you, Know that we hold you in our thoughts and prayers! Though Barbara will be gone from our sight she will remain in our hearts always as well as all of you. Allow the wonderful memories, love you shared and the legacy she leaves sustain you and provide comfort. Her love for you and guidance were unmeasurable. God's blessings and Favor, San, Belinda, Brandi, Renee, Melanie and Family
