GUEST BOOK

I want to offer my condolences to the Meadows family. Hebrews 4:15 says, "For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tested in all respects as we have, but without sin." Yes, Jesus endured sufferings when on earth, even the pain of losing a dear friend (John 11: 33, 35, 38). It has been promised from our God of comfort that sickness, old age, pain, and death will be removed (Isaiah 33:24; Job 33:24, 25; 1 Corinthians 15:26; Revelation 21:4,5). An additional promise given is that all our loved ones in the memorial tombs will be awoken from asleep in death to enjoy life as our loving Creator purposed (Isaiah 26:19; Psalms 145:16). Allow these words to keep comforting all of you.

Dear Judy and the Meadows Family, How sad for us that such a wonderful gentleman has left these shores. He and I would chat almost daily when we were both employed at Dorman High School. He was always a no nonsense and gracious gentlemen at all times. We were sad when he retired. However, I truly believe our loss was Heaven's gain. We shall pray for you going forward. Dear Meadows Family, I was so sorry to hear about the passing of Mr. Meadows. I worked with him at Dorman and always enjoyed talking to him. Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4 God Bless, Coach Mark Dempsey
